No problem, Kyle –

I am not familiar with this form, but I've cc'd the malaria SME here to see if she can help!

Thanks!
Kristina

Kristina,
Thanks for getting back to me about Hep A, that volunteer got better eventually. Hey we are reworking our technical guideline for malaria treatment right now, it is more than 10 years out of date. Could you briefly look at this form and confirm it is current one in use at CDC, it is to get anti-malarial drug level testing or testing pills for counterfeits. I couldn't find a .pdf of this on the web.

Thanks so much for all your help this past month, I really appreciate it.

Best,

Kyle
